SenSpa Voted Best Spa in the South In Good Spa Awards

SenSpa, located at stunning Careys Manor in Brockenhurst, New Forest has added to its award winning status after being voted the winner of the Best Spa in the South in the Good Spa Awards.

Having recently been awarded a maximum rating of 5 bubble in the Good Spa Guide for a third time, the Thai inspired facilities have taken home the prestigious award, voted for by members of the public and guests who have experienced the relaxing and unwinding properties of the many treatments and luxury facilities on offer.

After beating some of the toughest competition in the regional stages, Lina Lotto, Spa Director explains the delight of the whole team:

“As a highly regarded consumer resource for all things spa, we were delighted when the Good Spa Guide announced SenSpa at Careys Manor as a finalist in their prestigious national awards. When we were announced as the winner of Best Spa in the South we were thrilled. We owe our guests a big thank you for demonstrating their trust in us with their vote. The SenSpa team deserves full credit for this award. It is their untiring commitment to guests that makes the SenSpa experience so special and has inspired such tremendous support. In short, we're over the moon."

The Good Spa Award comes on the back of a successful year for the team at Careys Manor & SenSpa, after retaining their Certificate of Excellence 2012 awarded by the worlds largest review site Tripadvisor and their five bubble rating in the Good Spa Guide and being nominated for the 2013 Wedding Industry Awards - all demonstrating the way that the Hotel has managed to marry the highest levels of customer service with some of the best facilities in the area.
